FARROW MADE HIGH SCORE IN TOURNEY

Intercity Shooting Match Season Begins Tomorrow Decided Last Night.

American Targets Used at Twenty Messrs. Macfarland and West to Throw Yards-Regular Forty-four Caliber Revolver.

A novel revolver match took place last night between teams representing Springfield, Mass., and the District of Cclumbia. The local team 31d their shooting in the gallery of the National Guard and very good scores resulted.

The Springfield team did its shooting in Springfield and the results were telephoned to the Washington team. The local team did the same with their re-sults. Both teams made good averages and the shoot was considered a grand

The teams were made up of eight of the best men in the respective cities including the Metropolitan police force of the Capital City. The Springfield team used regular .44 caliber target pistols and the District boys used regular army Smith & Wesson .38 caliber revolvers. The distance was 20 yards. On account of the difference in guns the District men were given a handicap of 120 points, or 15 points to the man. This was added to their actual scores.

C. S. Wheeler was in charge of the Washington team while Lieut. G. G. Dennison was in charge of the Spring-neid team.

The highest local score was made by Lieut. Milton Farrow. He made 249 points, not counting his handicap. The next highest score by a local man was 243 points, which was made by J. C. Bunn.

Standard American targets were used by both teams. The shooting began at 9 o'clock and lasted until 10:30. The Washington score was as follows:

Morris Appleby......43, 37, 40, 38, 41, 38–237
J. C. Bunn.........40, 34, 38, 42, 41, 48–243

George Washington Players Still Confident.

terest and importance are to be played in the next seven days. On Wednesday the Buff and Blue banks up against Syracuse University and on Saturday will come the contest with Georgetown. Captain Stevenson and his men are in splendid condition now, and intend to bo, train especially for the Georgetown game this week. The disastrous ending of the trip into Virginia has not dis couraged the team in any way, as evidenced by the fact that it played the strong Williams College nine a eleveninning tie game the next day. When the team reached Charlottesville, the men were completely tired out from traveling. They had had but two hours' sleep the night before, getting up at Lexington at 2 o'clock and traveling most of the time until 12.

Some Hard Luck.

In addition to this, it became necesary to pitch Hutchinson twice, owing to the failure of Holland to go on the trip. The left-hander pitched at Roanoke on Monday and held the hard-hit-ting Virginians down to five hits, three of which came in the first inning. The George Washington boys contend that the Charlottesville game should not be taken as a criterion of their playing

The Buff and Blue is confident of defeating Syracuse Wednesday, and with Hutchinson in the bex believes that will give its old rival across the creek the greatest battle of the year. Just at present the men are hitting the ball good and hard. In the Williams game they secured more hits than Georgetown. During the coming week especial attention will be devoted to batting practice.

Change in Positions.

It is quite likely that in the future Bradley, who has been catching, will play first base and Weber will catch. In the game against Williams this change worked well.

Thomas or Holland will do the pitching against Syracuse Wednesday. The showing made by Thomas so far has been more than was expected. BALTIMORE, April 22.-Good racing was the order at Pimlico today and the big crowd that turned out got a run for its money. Speculation was lively and the betting ring was packed to suffocation with eager players.

The first race on the card was a four and a half furlong dash for two-year olds. Billy Garth's Nagazam, on his good work at Benning, was made an ven money favorite and heavily backed. Trainer Garth made no secret of the fact that his filly was good, and the crowd that strings along with the Virginian got its checks down the minute

MUTES PUT BOOTS OGLE EXPLODED ** TO JOHNS HOPKINS

Batting Rally.

ERRORS PROVED COSTLY FIFTH INNING WAS FATAL

of Misplays by Local Team.

Both Pitchers Good. Gallaudet College surprised Johns Hopkins University yesterday by defeating it by 5 to 4, at Kendall Green. Errors on the part of the mutes were responsible for the first three of Johns Hopkins' runs, while Gallaudet made her tallies by hard hitting.

Johns Hopkins was blanked in the first, while Cooper scored one for the Buff and Blue on his hit, sacrifices by Meunier, and Hunter, and a single by Tuley. McDonnell, for Johns Hopkins University, was given life at first in the second inning by Dillon's failure to take in his pop-up. Later Hinck allowed a quick throw from the pitcher to go through him, and McDonnell came home from first, tying the score.

Both sides were blanked until the sixth, when a passed ball by Seeley, on the third stroke, gave McDonnell life at first. He stole second and took third on another passed ball by Seeley, which allowed Iglehart to reach first. Iglehart stole second, and both he and Mc-Dowell scored on Seeley's wild throw Nagazam Fooled Them, But to third. In Gallaude I in line of the series by inning Seeley made up for his errors by driving a high one to left garden, which driving a high one to left garden, which Goldman barely touched, making the circuit. Hunter came in ahead of him, making the score 3 to 3.

In the eighth McDonneil took second on his drive over Hartman's head, stole third, and came home on Iglehart's out at first, giving the visitors the lead. But the mutes had their batting eyes peeled, and in their turn at bat scored two runs. Hunter got to first on an infield hit. Seeley stepped up and drove him home with a three-bagger between center and right field. Seeley lost his chance to score by running in Dillon, for Gallaudet, showed his mettle for the first time this season. He allowed but three hits, struck out nine men, and gave four passes to first. Waring was touched up for eleven hits by Gallaudet. He struck out four men and gave no passes to first. Harper, the Buff and Blue substitute, has handled all his chances in right field perfectly in the played, but cannot hit the ball. Cooper, who was brought in from left field in the absence of McDonnell, plays a far better game than the regular man, covering more than his own territory. McDonnell played the best game for the visitors, getting two of their runs, one hit, and making two assists. Gallaudet Totals ......33

AND GAME WENT

Baltimores Defeated by Commissioners Put Kibosh on St. Stephen's.

Visitors Made Three Tallies Because Victors Landed Hard on Ball and Made Five Runs-Clean Fielding.

> The Commissioners Club defeated SL Stephen's Institute, the champions of last year's Capital City League, at National Park yesterday afternoon by 12 to 5.

> Ogle started to pitch for the Institute team and for four innings was very effective, but in the fifth the Commissioners landed on the ball for five runs after two men had been thrown out at the plate.

> Donohoe went in the box in sixth and the Commissioners had the > game safe from that time on.

> The fielding of the Commissioners was nearly perfect, an excusable error by renable being the only slip up.
> Cantwell pitched a good steady game, none of the St. Staphen's men being pessed.

lost his chance to score by running in on Leitch's easy grounder to the pitcher. With two out, Hinch advanced Leitch and took first with a hard drive to short. Hartman's single drove Leitch home with the winning run. Hinch was caught between bases, retiring the side.

The visitors went out in one, two, three order in the ninth.
